This diagram shows an exploded view of a mechanical assembly. The components are labeled as follows:

- L-061: Four small, identical rectangular components with a central slot and a circular feature on one end.
- L-062: Two small, identical rectangular components with a central slot and a circular feature on one end.
- L-056: A large, curved, semi-circular component with a serrated edge and a central slot.
- L-057: Two identical vertical components with a central slot and a circular feature on one end.
- L-058: Two identical vertical components with a central slot and a circular feature on one end.
- L-059: A vertical component with a central slot and a circular feature on one end.
- L-060: Two identical rectangular components with a central slot and a circular feature on one end.
